Commissioners Wehri, Schlumbohm and Brubaker met with Tim Macke at the Ag Complex for a tour of his warehouse space at the Ag Complex.

A phone call was made to Croy's mowing about reconsidering to bid on mowing the landfill. They have submitted a bid for a one time mowing for $ 3,250.00, which the Commissioners are ok with.

Tim Schnipke stopped in to update the Commissioners on SD#1 needing a pump replaced. He has a quote to order a new pump for replacement also for $ 7,803. The Commissioners shared that some improvements that will be needed around the Ag Complex some concrete needs to be replaced. And the remaining portion of the building that needs siding. The fair is going well, a transformer went out on Sunday. Miller's lift is not working well.

The business agenda was held with Commissioners Wehri, Schlumbohm and Brubaker and Cindy Landwehr, Clerk.

Commissioners returned a call to Leroy Kahle regarding the drive for the Monark building. The Commissioners are ok to leave the drive in as long as it does not cost the county anything. If it is more cost effective to remove the drive then it will be removed. Leroy will stop in later to settle up with the Commissioners.

The minutes from Thursday June 18, 2026 were reviewed and approved.

Catherine Rosselit stopped in to ask the Commissioners about the annexation into the village, due to the letter she received from our office. She is in Sewer District #2 she does not want city water now. She has 5 years to hook up to water. The sewer billing will be based on water usage. Annexing will be cheaper for her for usage fees.

Mr. Wehri moved to adjourn for lunch.
